DENVER REGIONAL COUNCIL OF GOVERNMENTS HONORS JEANNE SHREVE WITH A DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

DENVER – Jeanne Shreve received a Distinguished Service Award from the Denver Regional Council of Governments (DRCOG). The award was presented by DRCOG board secretary Bob Fifer at DRCOG’s annual awards celebration on April 26 at the Sheraton Downtown Denver.

Shreve is the intergovernmental relations manager for Adams County. In the past 15 years, Shreve has worked on an array of transportation projects, including FasTracks, North I-25 construction, bicycle and pedestrian improvements and improving transit for older adults and people with disabilities. She has served on the DRCOG Transportation Advisory Committee for more than ten years.

“We’re thankful for Jeanne Shreve’s leadership and expertise in improving transportation throughout our region,” said Doug Rex, DRCOG’s acting executive director. “Her range of experience brings a wealth of knowledge to the planning table.”

DRCOG presents Distinguished Service Awards to individuals who make significant contributions to the Denver region and its communities, and to DRCOG’s programs and activities. The regional council has been honoring outstanding achievements for more than 30 years.

The Denver Regional Council of Governments is a planning organization where local governments collaborate to establish guidelines, set policy and allocate funding in the areas of transportation and personal mobility, growth and development, and aging and disability resources.
